WE'RE PLEASED, BUT A FEW SUGGESTIONS

Some time ago there appeared an editorial in these columns stating that an early tree planting campaign should be adopted by the town council. We are very pleased indeed to hear that at the last council meeting the councillors purchased a number of trees which are to be planted this spring.

It has been suggested that fourth avenue west is to be favored this year with the 7 year old elms. This portion of the town is in as much need of trees as any other portion, so the planting of the trees should not be amiss. The local Board of Trade has stated its willingness to help in planting the trees and the Elks lodge have given their intention of looking after their boulevard in front of their playground. This will be a good start, which if continued next year and the next until the town is properly landscaped will go a long way to rid Wainwright of its bare appearance.

It has been suggested, or rather we have been given to believe that the trees are 7 years old, transplanted 5 times, and are guaranteed to live or will be replaced free of charge if they should die within one year.

The investment that the town will have in trees this year is very small—on looking over the financial report of last week's council meeting, an item appears which states that the trees cost the town $108.00. In time to come the cost of this article will never be considered and the joy to be had from their shade will far outweigh the cost.

At the Board of Trade meeting the other night it was mentioned by one member of the council that the trees were to be planted 25 feet apart. Now we do not profess to be agriculturists of any sort, but this might be a mistake. On reading the Edmonton Journal's issue of April 10th there appeared an editorial which stated that the city of Edmonton is to change its policy on the planting of boulevard trees. It has been the practice in Edmonton to plant their trees at 25 foot intervals and then to work hard all summer trimming and pruning them down to a size that was suitable.

The new policy is to plant the trees at a distance of 40 feet and let them take a natural appearance with little pruning. If we are to be progressive then the one surest way is to learn by others' mistakes. It might be wise to look into the feasibility of planting Wainwright's trees at this distance and let nature take its course.

While the tree planting episode is still in the beginning stages it might be worthwhile to cast a nation-wide stick to it, so that uniformity will be the result. Before a shovel of sod is turned a decision should be made as to the distance the trees should be apart, as well as the distance they should be from the property line. No doubt our resident District Agriculturist and Field Supervisor could enlighten us on this matter.

One other matter that should be looked into and that is the matter of cement curbing. A few citizens in Wainwright have taken the time, effort and spent money to improve their property by curbing the boulevard. We must say that this gives the property a smarter looking appearance, as well as increases its value. Aside from increasing the value of the property it gives the greatest degree of protection for the lawn, trees and shrubs that grow on the land. If the council could see their way clear to put curbing in as the trees are planted it certainly would add some protection to the young trees.

Whether we are as lazy or what, we do not know, but at present all of the so-called boulevards in town are being destroyed through running of cars and trucks on them. It has always been the practice of the driver to sneak up as close as possible to the gate, so that less walking would be in store. If there were proper cement curbs this practice would cease immediately.

If the council should think that cost would be prohibitive some scheme might be worked out whereas the residents pay part of the cost. Any way it is something worthwhile to think about, but to give these new young trees a chance to grow, steps should be taken for their protection at the earliest possible.

It has also been suggested by members of the council that residents could obtain these trees at the same time, provided they place their order early. The trees are scheduled to arrive during the first part of May and at the price that is being asked they should be quite reasonable. Each tree is to cost $1.90, which to landscape a 50 foot lot would only mean an expenditure of approximately $4.00. If two or three neighbors, or a whole block, would go together it would only be a short time until Wainwright would take on the appearance of a well-groomed town. Of course if the town funds are to provide the trees it might mean that years must pass until the property in front of your home is properly treed and landscaped. This idea is one that should merit consideration by all home owners or renters. $4.00 should not be missed by anyone. Certainly if the money is expended it won't be missed five years from now. What do you say Mr. Home Owner, let's help Wainwright to help itself. Call and see the Town Secretary, Mr. Pawsey, and he will take your order for a tree or two.

Hints for the Household

FRUIT SAUCE
1 tsp. cornstarch
2 cups juice from canned fruit
Dash of salt
1 teaspoon almond extract
Mix the cornstarch with a little of the cold juice and blend until smooth. Heat remaining juice and gradually add the cornstarch mixture and the salt. Cook about 10 min. stirring constantly until thickened. Add flavoring. Six servings.

BUTTERMILK FLAKES WAFFLES
1 cup sifted flour
3/4 teaspoon soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup wheat and malted barley flakes or 40% bran flakes
2 egg yolks, well beaten
1 cup buttermilk or sour milk
4 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
2 egg whites
Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift again. Add flakes and mix well. Combine egg yolks, milk and butter, add to flour mixture, beating only until smooth. Beat egg whites until they will hold up in moist peaks. Stir quickly but thoroughly into batter. Bake in hot waffle iron. Serve with maple-flavored syrup. Makes three 4-section waffles.

MEAT AND BUDGET EXTENDER
Everyone, almost without exception, likes meat. Even the aroma and the eye appeal of properly cooked meat stimulate and aid good digestion. It is around the meat course that the family's enjoyment of the meal centres. Therefore it becomes the responsibility of the homemaker, in the face of scarcities and changing prices, to learn how to prepare and use the cuts available, to extend them as far as possible and yet at the same time to serve them in tempting and delicious ways.

The value of meat is not dependent upon its cost. The less expensive cuts are equally as good as those of higher price. They require long, slow cooking in a covered pan, using moist heat to soften the tough connective tissue. These cuts may also be made tender by grinding.

When the homemaker cooks with imagination, stew, pot roast, Swiss steak, etc., become intriguing fare. A touch of mystery may be achieved by the addition of such seasonings as celery tops, bay leaf, thyme or an onion stuck with two or three whole cloves. These dishes are sure to get a big hand from the family.

The home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture suggest adding sour cream, canned tomato or mushroom soup to the gravy, to give new sparkle to tried and true favorites. A meat loaf unmoistened on a baking sheet, frosted with creamed potatoes and browned in a hot oven is as superb as a prime roast.

Other good meat extenders, which carry the flavour of meat and yet increase the number of servings are vegetables, bread crumbs or dressings, dumplings and biscuit toppings. Rich meaty gravies or tangy sauces are the perfect accompaniment to all meat courses and play their part in stretching the meat used.

MUSHROOM - MEAT PATTIES
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1/2 cup water
1 pound ground beef or veal
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 egg, beaten
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons minced onion
1/4 cup chopped celery Dilute the mushroom soup with the water blending until smooth. Combine ground meat with crumbs, salt, pepper, onion and celery. Shape into patties about 1 inch thick and brown both sides in hot fat. Cover with remaining soup mixture and bake, covered, for 35 minutes in a moderate oven 350° F., or simmer covered on top of the stove for 15 minutes. Six servings.

MOCK DUCK WITH DILL DRESSING

3 lbs. round steak, cut 1/4 in. thick
3 cups soft bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon poultry dressing
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped dill pickle
6 tablespoons melted fat
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1/2 cup dill pickle juice
Wipe round steak with a damp cloth. Combine crumbs, salt, onion, dill pickles and 3 tablespoons fat. Spread steak with prepared mustard and place dressing on top. Roll up and fasten with skewers and cord. Moil remaining 3 tablespoons fat in heavy pan and brown steak on all sides. Add dill pickle juice and cook in a covered pan 1 1/2 hours or until tender. Six servings.

SAUCE FOR BOILED BEEF

1/2 cup sweet pickle relish
3 tablespoons chopped parsley or celery tops
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup vinegar
Combine all ingredients and mix well. Serve with hot sliced boiled beef. The meat may be simmered until tender, then baked in a hot oven 400° F. for about 20-25 minutes or until nicely browned.

FARMING NOTES

By Prov. Dept. of Agriculture

THE ONE-WAY DISC HARROW

In some areas, particularly the arid and semi-arid regions, the single disc harrow has been preferred for some operations by the farmers, because of its light draft and the shallow depths of tillage obtainable. Due to the light draft per foot, the operator can use a wide implement and thus cover large acreages, says J. L. Thompson, Dominion Experimental Station, Swift Current, Sask.

One of the worst features of this particular machine has been the ridging effect it produces in field operations. Operators have tried to overcome this defect by splitting the ridges on the repeat operation. This worked satisfactorily if the ridge could be followed. Where operators did not drive straight in the first operation, it was difficult to split the ridge the next time. Others tried running the disc at a flatter angle, and this only decreased the ridge size and also the effectiveness of the tillage.

Another method was the introduction of the double or tandem disc. This machine did away with ridging, but it did not become popular for the following reasons: 1. Increased draft; 2. Smaller width of cut; 3. Rear gang clogged up under moist conditions; 4. Poorer weed kill.

The introduction of the combine and the one-way reaper actually brought attention to the fact that the land must be tilled in such a way to keep the surface level for better efficiency in the operation of these machines. Farmers also began to realize the better results obtained in weed killing on level land by blades and the one-way disc. Hence, in those areas where a light tillage implement, such as a disc harrow was required, some farmers built the light one-way disc harrow. Successful machines have been built at Kindersley, Sham-avon, and in the Regina area.

These machines, in most cases, use a large steel pipe for the main frame with a land wheel, front and rear narrow wheels. The discs used are 16 to 18 inches in diameter, and the three and one-half foot gangs are connected by flexible couplings. The thrust may be all taken on the front end bearing, or by special hangers on each gang. Either method works. Individual pressure springs on the gangs and power lifts is desirable.

If these machines are operated at speeds no greater than three and one-half m.p.h., the quality of the tillage obtained in all instances is superior to the single disc harrow. The stubble is left on the top and the weeds are effectively controlled. If the hitch is correctly adjusted, no ridges are left in the field. This machine is also flexible and will work over uneven ground with a leveling effect. If speeds below 3½ mph are maintained these machines will not pulverize dangerously, and the trash will be anchored on the surface.

The power requirements of this machine are the same as the single disc harrow, and are just one-third of that required for the one-way. This machine has its place in the Open Plains Area and, with careful operation, will give satisfactory results.

POTATO QUALITY

An appeal is made to Alberta potato growers and dealers, to help improve the quality of potatoes offered to the consumer. Definite standards and grades have been established for potatoes, and inspection services are provided to help maintain a high quality product.

J. L. Bagshaw, Supervisor of Plant Control, advises that it is illegal to pack potatoes or offer them for sale in a closed container unless they are properly labelled. Most Alberta potatoes qualify for either Canada No. 1 or Canada No. 2 grade and must be labelled accordingly. Growers are reminded that potatoes can not be packed "ungraded". There is no such grade. In fact, dealers, wholesalers, and retailers cannot legally accept or sell potatoes that don't qualify for the minimum grade Canada No. 2. Trafficking in "Canada No. 1 small" potatoes is being discouraged at this time of year to avoid the possibility of abuse by those who might infer that such potatoes are of seed grade.

ELEVATORS REQUESTED

HOLD FLAX SEED

With the urgent need for increased flax acreage in 1947, an effort is being made by the Canadian Wheat Board to allow growers to obtain their seed requirements before flax is shipped elsewhere.

A request has gone forward to all grain companies asking that carlot shipment of Board flax seed from country elevators be avoided, unless permission for such shipment from the Board's Winnipeg or Calgary office has first been obtained.

There is a keen demand for flax seed, and this request from the Wheat Board will assist materially towards Alberta's flax production program in 1947.

BARLEY PRICE AND HOGS

Several letters have been received by the Live Stock Branch with reference to the quoted price of 50¢ for barley, and there seems to be a mistaken idea that the farmer who is feeding hogs could get this price at the elevator.

Live Stock Supervisor A. J. Charnetzki points out that the Edmonton barley price to farmers is 75½¢ for No. 1 Feed. Prices quoted by the Canada Grain Board are on the basis of Ft. William. From these prices, freight and handling charges must be deducted, which makes the actual cost to the Alberta farmer around 51¢ for oats and 75½¢ for barley. At these prices, says Mr. Charnetzki, hogs can still be considered top mortgage-lifters and more detailed information on this subject may be expected in the near future.

This may be the crisis we're not supposed to get over. We may have to change.

Cancer Dressing Service

The Cancer Dressing Service inaugurated late in January by the Alberta Branch, Canadian Cancer Society, reports that at the end of February 26 patients were being supplied with dressings. These patients are from widely scattered districts of the Province, cases being handled at Meadowdale, Bonnyville, Edmonton, Leduc, Coronation, Olds, Hanna, Calgary, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and Cardston. It is expected that the number of requests for dressings will increase steadily.

Cancer patients who wish to avail themselves of this free service should make application to Cancer Dressing Service, 511-5th Ave. West, Calgary.
The basic information required in making application is: size of dressing, daily requirements and whether they should be sterilized or not.

Letters have been sent to Doctors throughout the Province informing them of this free service so that they may pass the information on to patients.

WANTED - TIME FOR A BREATH

Nothing succeeds like success. If you disagree, ask Ed Bryant or Dick Taylor or Amos Gansam or any member of CUGA's popular Sons of the West.

Aside from their air popularity the boys are in heavy demand throughout the city—so heavy in fact that they can't possibly comply with all requests.

After a somewhat modest beginning on the air the artists soon gained listener momentum. They hit the CBC weekly, Wednesday evenings and soon after, they took over the Edmonton Tire Barn Dance every Thursday, Today the Sons of the West are also hosts of the Cavendish Cavalliers heard every weekday afternoon.

Other CBC originators are in the making. That's a lot of entertaining and the boys get a lot of listening.
In fact their popularity has grown so rapidly that service clubs, conventions and numerous other groups in Edmonton, and district, call for their services continuously.

To accommodate all types of audiences the Sons of the West have prepared two programs—one based on "Oklahoma"—the other, a definitely corny "western". Both seem to go over with a bang—so much so in fact that each succeeding program brings forth another avalanche of requests. It is apparent that nothing succeeds like success.

As a service to our readers, as well as the auctioneers that have their bills printed at the Star, each week will appear a list in this column of the Auction Sales that we are aware of.

APRIL 16th—H. Parthing, owner, 19 miles West, 1 1/2 miles North of Wainwright, Bowerman and Boyd, Auctioneers.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our kind friends and neighbors for their acts of love and sympathy during our recent loss of our little daughter Charmayne.
